

MORGAN RICH, MA, PCC

A GLITCH IN THE MATRIX...AND, YIKES, MY FUTURE

Where do you stand at moments of controversy and challenge?

You choose. The environmental, economic, and moral challenges we face are causing many young people to feel uncertain and even pessimistic about the future. So how do you make the choice to stand powerfully?

Morgan shares his remarkable belief that the untapped talent, passion, creativity, and potential in young people can create the change you crave. U R ready to be a leader. Through his honest, humorous, and optimistic perspective (and his 5 secrets) he challenges and guides you to step up and get in action.

MAKING POWERFUL CHOICES

What school to go to? How to choose a major? A career? What to do next?

Making an investment in yourself today is a big deal. You want to go down the right path and set yourself up to make a difference, but what does that mean you should do?

Lots of students have a hard time making choices. And there are usually people offering a lot of advice about what you should do and criticism for being indecisive. Allow Morgan to come and inspire you to Trust Yourself - the foundation of making powerful choices. He will share 5 secrets for learning to build this foundation so you can stand powerfully for the Real You.

SURVIVE THRIVE IN SCHOOL!

Learning happens in the classroom...and beyond.

Being involved and having a plan that will help you cultivate your talent, passion, creativity, and energy, will help you make good on your investment of being in school. Morgan's storytelling and passion provide insight and inspiration for how you can make the most of your experience at school. Instead of sitting around and waiting for things to happen, you will be challenged and inspired to be proactive in your life and courageous in your decisions.

When Morgan Rich, MA, PCC, is not coaching or inspiring young people, he is laughing, playing, reading books, and enjoying every day while raising his two young children with his wife. The combination of his speaking, coaching and parenting is the most important and joyful work he has ever done. These experiences and a Masters degree from Northwestern University in Chicago have helped him understand that at the heart of our success as people is self-esteem and relationships with people.

He is a passionate and entertaining speaker who engages his audiences in thoughtful self-reflection. He challenges his audiences to get in action and make a difference by sharing their gift with the world, with his combination of humor, story telling, and honesty. It is with the passion to make a difference in people's lives, and his coach training at inviteChange, that he coaches his clients, both individual and group, to sustainable and long-term success.

Morgan is author of the forth-coming book, Launch Your Life: 5 secrets to knowing what you want in your teens, college years, and early career.
